The sushi specialists at Austin's Uchi on South Lamar have done it again. The restaurant was voted best food in Austin, according to Zagat survey.

The New York business reviewer released the results of its latest Texas restaurant survey today, which includes more than 1,800 Central Texas eateries. The Salt Lick made the favorites list, taking the "most popular" crown, while the Driskill Grill was noted for "best decor" and TRIO took the cake for best service.

The poll also asked participants about general eating trends. About 35 percent said the economy has made restaurant pricing more important, while 32 percent report simply eating out less. Austin eateries reported the having the lowest average meal price of large Texas metros at about $30.76. Dallas reported the highest average price per plate at about $35.03.

Central Intelligence Agency

In 1947, President Harry S. Truman signed the National Security Act, creating the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) with a mission to advise the President on intelligence matters related to national security. Today, as the premier agency responsible for providing global intelligence on the ever-changing political, social, economic, technological and military environment, the CIA accomplishes its mission through research, development, and deployment of high-leverage intelligence-gathering technology.
